

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ON COLLABORATION between
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS and
RAJABHAT UNIVERSITY CONSORTIUM

University of North Texas (UNT) and Rajabhat Universities want to promote academic cooperation and strengthen educational, cultural, and technological ties that will result in a better understanding between all institutions, support the internationalization of their campuses, and enhance their contributions to the well-being of their respective communities. To further these objectives, all universities intend to use their best efforts to arrive at separate formal agreements in a broad range of areas to implement the following goals:

1. All institutions will try to develop collaboration between their colleges, departments, administrative staffs, and professors through such means as exchanges, sabbatical leave assignments, lectures, symposia, practica, internships, workshops, collaborative research, joint projects with business and industry, and professional development programs.
2. All universities will try to exchange students and faculty.
3. All universities will try to undertake joint activities among their students and appropriate units in artistic, cultural, and athletic areas.
4. All universities will promote institutional and academic cooperation through computing, telecommunications, and other modes of communication through information technology.

UNT and Rajabhat University Consortium will encourage active contact between their relevant colleges, academic and administrative units, and student groups to accomplish these goals.
